

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE
CHALLENGES OF ONLINE MEDIA IN SEE

Sarajevo, 15 – 16 March 2012

The International Conference "Challenges of Online Media" will be held in Sarajevo from 14 to 16 March 2012.

Participants will be journalists and editors from online media, print media and agencies from BiH and the region, as well as representatives from the Press Council in Bosnia and Herzegovina and from Press Councils of neighboring countries.

The purpose of the organizer is to enable the exchange of experiences amongst colleagues from BiH and the region, and amongst members of the Alliance of Independent Press Councils of Europe, AIPCE, about ethics and the online media's manner of reporting, as well as about the manner of regulating visitors' comments. Also, an important topic will be the protection of copyrights when media uses original articles from other print and online media agencies.

The Press Council in BiH's partner in the realization of this project is Konrad Adenauer Stiftung, Media Program South East Europe.
