Sarajevo, 25.06.2011

The Work Group to amend online media provisions to the Press Code of B&H held its fourth meeting on Saturday, 25.06.2011 in Sarajevo.

Proposals for the amendment of provisions to the Press Code of B&H in regards to online media have been finalized during the meeting. Also, proposals were made to change the Press Code of B&H to earlier formulations, especially with regards to hate speech and the definition of Article 3 – Incitement.

The proposed Recommendation for online media comments was also passed.

The proposals to change the Press Code of B&H will be sent to the members of the Press Council in B&H, print and online media, as well as to journalists' associations, for comments and suggestions prior to the final approval.
